THE OPUS

Presented by

Senior Class

Sherburne Central School

Sherburne, New York

FOREWORD

As has been the goal of the editors of the previous Opus's, we the Class of '59 wish to convey to our readers, by the production of our Opus, the activities and ambitions of the students at Sherburne Central School. We hope you will enjoy and cherish our memories.

ALMA MATER

All hail to Sherburne High School,
Alma Mater true,

Loyalty and honor
We pledge to you,

Maroon and white the fairest,
Songs to thee we raise,

Through Chenango Valley
Echoes thy praise.

by Frank Miller

Miss Brothers

THE DEDICATION

To show our appreciation of her understanding help and guidance, we, the Class of 1959, wish to dedicate our yearbook to a most capable teacher and person, Miss Brothers. She has been the spark that has assisted us in getting our class activities done well and efficiently. She has always let us work out all our problems and only when we have run into serious difficulty has she stepped in. The dedication of our yearbook, "The Opus '59," is our token of sincerest appreciation for all that she has done for us. We thank you, Miss Brothers.

WE HONOR

This summer the Sherburne Band accompanied the American Legion Post 876 to New York to compete for the title of the best Legion Junior Band. Not only did the Band and Drill Team return victorious, but also the Band later placed first at the State Fair in Syracuse. The Senior Class is proud of the enjoyment the Band has brought to the Community.

ADMINISTRATION

The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SENIOR

SENIORS

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time; . . .

SHAKESPEARE

SENIORS

JUNE ADSIT

A smile for all,
A frown for none,
Victory in life
For her is won.

NORMA AMES

Cute, pretty and full of vim, Whene'er she's around,
nothing is dim.

JUDITH ANDREWS

Judy smiles at every task,
And wins the honors of our class.

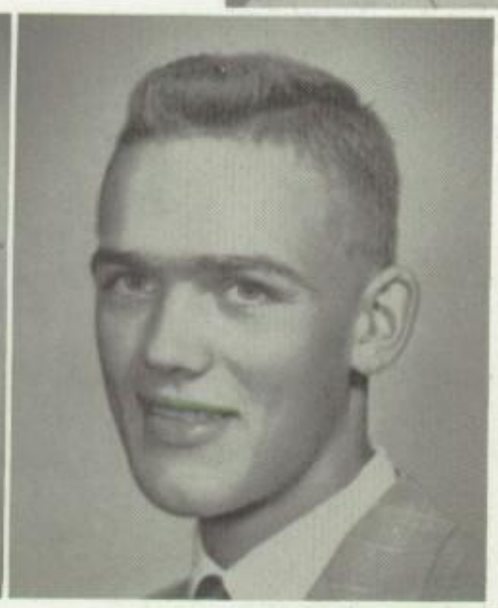
ROBERT ANGLE

Never say more than necessary.



JUNE BALLAM

High school days have their delights,
But I prefer high school nights.

ROGER BELUSH

An easy minded soul, and always was.

WILLIAM BERGNER

Bill likes sports of many kinds,
But there're other things on his mind.

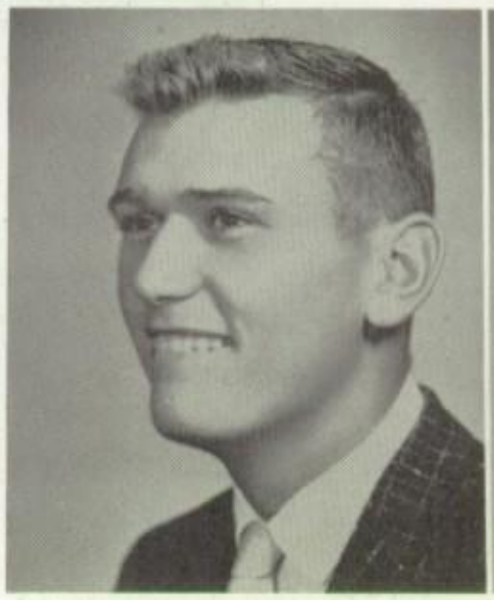
MARIA E. BRANCATO

Sparkle in her eyes,
Laughter on her lips,
Merlaine's a girl
You won't want to miss.



SENIORS

ROBERT BROOKS

The world looks easy to conquer from a height.

BILL BROWNING

Bill loves the farm life which he leads,
All agricultural advice he heeds.

DAVE BURGESS

Dave is known for humorous
wit,
Whatever is said he adds his bit.

WAYNE CAMPBELL

He's our boy!
In wrestling he's our pride and joy.

EMILY CLARK

This little miss with her pretty curls
Is the envy of all the other girls.

RICHARD COSENS

I never think of the future;
It comes soon enough.

NORMAN CURNS

Norman's always bursting with mirth,
Happiest guy on the face of the earth.

RANDY CURRY

Silence is the element in which great things fashion themselves.

CRAIG DAVIDSON
In band and math, Craig has chosen his path.

HELEN DAVIS
There is a time for speaking and a time for being still.

RICHARD DECKER
A flash of light, a roar in the night. Paul Revere?
No - Dick, that's right.

WILLIAM DOING
He most prevails where nobody dares.

LAVERNE DOUGHERTY
A gay young chap, With an angle to his cap.

WILLIAM DOYLE
A common name for a not so common fellow.

JOSEPH DUBIEL Clever men are good, but they are not the best.

SENIORS

JOYCE GERSCH

As merry as the day is long.

JANN GUTER

Sparkle, pep, vim and vigor,
All wrapped up in a pert little figure.

CAROLYN HODGES

Sing away sorrow,
Cast away care.

JOYCE HOLCOMB

Always bright, happy and gay,
That is Joyce's winning way.

SALLY JOHNSON

Poised and perfect in a care-free way.

DOREEN JONES

Drawing is her skillful art,
And with it she will never part.

GERALDINE KISH

Be to her virtues a little kind,
Be to her faults a little blind.

EDNA LAMOREE

Gentle of speech,
Beneficent of mind.

SENIORS

JAMES LEWICKI

A smile for every fellow;
Two for every girl.

BRENT LIVINGSTON

A thinker, not a talker.

ELEANOR MATHEWSON

A girl of sweet and quiet grace with kindness in her face.

BARRY MATTESON

A little bit quiet, a little bit
shy;
Nevertheless, he's a wonderful guy.

MARY McQUEEN

What wisdom can you find that is greater than kindness?

MARY MENNING

Her heart is like the moon - there's a man in it.

RICHARD MERHIB

A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men.

CATHERINE METTLER

Her ways are ways of pleasantness.

SENIORS

GERALDINE NELSON

With sparkling eyes and golden hair,
No wonder everyone turns to stare.

DAVID NEWMAN

Life is a comedy.

DAVID PALMER

A saucy grin betrays some trick,
That Dave is going to pull, but quick.

JUDITH PARK

'Tis only noble to be good.

STEPHEN PRICE

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

SANDRA REESE

Well-timed silence has more eloquence than speech.

ANNE REYNOLDS

It's the little things in life that count.

DOUGLAS RILEY

The strength of twenty men.

SENIORS

RONALD SCHRODER

Something attempted -
Something done.

RAYMOND SHAW

Einie, Mienie, Meiney, Moe;
Tonight I wonder where I'll go.

BETTY SHERMAN

A face as gentle as candlelight.

CARL SHERWOOD

In Industrial Arts works this young boy;
He's Mr. Vahue's pride and joy.

BEVERLY STAPLETON

Shy at a glance, but give her a chance.

KENNETH STEVENS

A gay young chap,
With an angle to his cap.

CAROL STREICH

Remembered joys are never past.

JAMES TAYLOR

None but himself can be his parallel.

SENIORS

JAMES TRIPP

Happy-go-lucky;
Not a care in the world.

RUTH ANN WARE

The thoughts of youths are long,
long thoughts.

LOIS WOOD

There's a sparkle in her eye and one on her finger.

GEORGE WRIGHT

Small in stature, big, big in ideas.

TED YERTON

Hear much; speak little.

ELLEN BALDWIN

We know little of thee
But what we know is good.

CLASS OFFICERS

Treasurer, M. Brancato; Secretary, N. Ames; Vice President, B. Sherman; President, J. Andrews.

Without the concern and hard work of our capable Senior Class Officers, we would probably not be looking forward to a Senior Trip. Not only do we have our Senior Class Officers to thank, but those others who have worked so tediously during the last four years.

CLASS HISTORY

September 4, 1955 - The meeting was called to order at 12:50 by Freshman Class President, Maria Brancato. The first order of business was our Freshman Dance, "Frosh Fairyland." Doreen Jones was appointed Decoration Committee Chairman and her fairyland characters were quite beautiful. It was held February 11, 1956, with Betty Sherman and Jim Lewicki as our reigning King and Queen.

As the year adjourned, we looked back on our successful year as the Freshman Class of S.C.S.

September 14, 1956 - The meeting was called to order by Sophomore President, Bill Bergner. New business for the year found us all looking forward to the annual "Sadie Hawkins" dance. The obtaining of an orchestra proved to be quite a conflict, but we were more than pleased with our final choice, the "Foggy Valley Boys."

The year was adjourned in June and the future Junior Class looked ahead to a busy year.

September 13, 1957 - The meeting was brought to order by President, Betty Sherman. This year we really had to start working for our goal, the trip to New York. The motion was made and accepted to hold a series of J-Hops, followed by a Square Dance.

The motion was made and accepted which put our Junior Newspaper, "59 Presents," under the able editorship of June Ballam and Jerry Kish.

Now, the most important business of the year was at hand. The production of our Junior Prom, "Oriental Gardens." With the whole class working as an efficient unit, our Prom was not only beautiful but successful. We all looked on with satisfaction at a job well done as Jim Taylor escorted Queen Maria Brancato to the throne.

The business of our Junior year completed, we adjourned the meeting in June, 1958.

September 18, 1958 - The last and final meeting was brought to order by Senior Class President, Judy Andrews.

The first order of business for the year was the Spaghetti Supper. With the help of our advisor, Miss Brothers, and the skillful hand of our chef, Mrs. Merhib, the supper was a big success.

Bake sales, magazine sales, stationery sales - all played an important role in the old and new business of this year.

Now, as our last meeting comes to a close, we look back with satisfaction on our accomplishments. We remember the band victory during the summer in New York in which many of us participated. Also, we recall the changing of leagues and the champion 1958 Maroon Mauraders that we cheered in victory.

All these things will long be remembered in the hearts of the Class of '59.

Respectfully submitted,

Norma Ames, Secretary

CLASS POEM

NINE and FIFTY

The good ship, "Nine and Fifty,"
With all its flags unfurled,
Sails forth bravely, from this day,
Into an unknown world.

The figurehead is Knowledge,
Ambition strong its mast;
The timbered keel, Integrity,
Sails of Hope tied fast.

Our compass, Truth, to chart the course
Throughout the voyage' length.
The rudder, steadfast Faith in God,
Our cargo Youth and Strength.

Thro' tranquil seas or tempest toss'd
Sail we, the dauntless crew;
To record upon the Log of Life
Our tale of venture true.
